

Mars Hill Revisited is a rock band from Ripon, California. MHR is a band of Christian guys who believe music is a powerful tool for telling the world about faith. They play original music and just released a new E.P. in July 2010 entitled "Ready To Go" (second album overall). They've recently received radio play for three different songs on stations in California, including "Why Don't You Run" playing on Broken.fm (broadcasting online and on stations in the Napa valley region), and "Hole In My Heart" and "Finish Line" playing on 101.5 fm in the California central valley. In 2010, MHR has played at Spirit West Coast in Monterey, CA, and at numerous events in the central CA region including some Modesto Nut's pre-game concerts, youth events, Relay For Life rallies, etc. In the latter part of 2010, they're booked to play at Joshua Fest near Sacramento and Monster Fest in Merced, among other shows. The goal for MHR is to finish recording a full album by the beginning of 2011. In the mean time, check out their schedule by finding them at myspace.com/marshillrevisited or on facebook!
