

MOTIVE

Motive is a Band originating in Santa Maria, Ca. The members of Motive include Julian Clymer (vocals), Rick Plumlee II (guitar/backing vocals), Jordan Espinoza (bass) and Brian Campbell (Drums/percussion). With their clashing styles of rock, their music is up and coming, and is getting huge attention throughout Southern California. Mixing with the genres of Metal, Pop, Grunge and Rock n' Roll, they not only bring a new and interesting style to the stage but also bring energy and movement to their performances.

Julian Clymer is a Seattle, Wa. born who eventually moved to San Luis Obispo, Ca. to pursue his education and musical career. He has been singing his entire life and is largely influenced by Alice in Chains, Nirvana, Soundgarden, Weezer, Rage Against the Machine, and Nine Inch Nails. He even has hip-hop influences such as Flobots. At the age of 21, he brings a pop/hip-hop style laced with grunge and hard rock.

Rick Plumlee II was born and raised in Santa Maria, Ca. Trained by a recognized guitar academy, he has been playing guitar for 8 years now. Rick built his foundation on Classic rock and Blues music. At a young age he discovered metal/hard rock and never looked back. Now 20, his biggest influences include Godsmack, Pantera, Motley Crue, Alice in Chains, Drowning Pool, Hatebreed, Tool, and even Steve Miller Band, CCR, and The Eagles. He brings a hard edged, heavy driven guitar style to the band.

Jordan Espinoza was born in Los Angeles, Ca and was raised in Santa Maria. He has been playing bass since his freshman year of high school. Now 22, he continues to be an exceptional musician. Jordan brings a huge amount of dedication and drive to the band. His influences include Tool, Alice in Chains, Bad Brains, Mike Watt (The Minutemen), Tim Commerford (Rage Against the Machine), and Jaco Pastiors.

Brian Campbell was born in Lompoc, Ca. and now resides in San Luis Obispo. He is 25 years old and has been playing the drums for many years, including drum line and many former bands. Nick-named "The Hammer", he is a force to be reckoned with behind his set. Brian's influences include Shannon Larkin (Godsmack), Neil Pert (Rush), Dream Theatre, Rikki Rocket (Poison), Slipknot, Slayer, Hatebreed and Papa Roach.

All together Motive has made a lot of noise up and down the west coast and plans to become bigger and better. Within the next six months they hope to be playing with and/or touring with bigger bands and playing bigger shows around the country under a recognized label. They have high expectations for the future with a positive frame of mind and will not be satisfied until they've become nationally known but won't stop there. Pushing themselves to be the best is all they do on a daily basis. They live, breathe, eat and sleep music and strive to be on top.
